

WEBSITE STRUCTURE

The website structure comprises of public and secure areas. Both areas are managed using the CMS and are accessed through a LogIn page. Content is written to an integrated database. The website structure is shown in the diagram below:

Website Structure – Public and Secure Areas